Oct 25, 2023 – Climate Caucus elected only presentation with Ryan Mackie from BCIT on Carbon Budgets. Very, Very different than the presentation from the CRD on June 26, 2022 which focused on climate budgets and not science based carbon budgets.

A MUST WATCH PRESENTATION:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=iOeksgYiLk>

Notes:

- Consumption based GHG's
- Global Targets based on IPPC AR6
- NO CARBON BUDGET LEFT (ran out 10-20 years ago) to limit warming to 1.5C
 - Note that 1.5C is a line in the sand (threshold) and not a target due to planetary boundaries and tipping points.
- However, the good news is that if all levels of government...everywhere... create policy requirements immediately for net positive or regenerative outcomes for everything, there might be a chance of avoiding catastrophic climate impacts.
- Targets must be net positive.
 - Carbon sequestration
 - Embodied carbon
- Goes on to discuss what this looks like for local governments wrt buildings, Transportation, food/agriculture.

Presentation will be delivered to local government staff and as many policy makers as possible.

CRD Regional Water Supply Commission & CRD JDF Water Distribution
Commission and Sustainable Land Use Select Committee

JDF Water Distribution Commission – October 3 2023

We received the Service Planning Report that laid out the expense costs for new community service needs (new ongoing service-related expenses associated with staffing). These service needs are directly informed by the CRD Board Strategic Initiatives. The Commission recommended they be approved by the CRD Board.

JDF 2024 Service and Operating Budget

In general the JDF Water Distribution rate base has increased $10.8 million and revenue requirement increased by $1.3 million. There are $20.4 million worth of capital projects planned for 2024, with the 5 year plan (2024-2028) comprising $58.9 million. Of special note, 70% of the 2024 plan is related to existing infrastructure asset renewal. Overall the retail water rate for the JDF will increase 5.74% to a price of $2.6927/m3.

The full JDF budget can be viewed at https://www.crd.bc.ca/docs/default-source/crd-document-library/committeedocuments/juandefucawaterdistributioncommission/20231003/jwdc2023-10-03agendapkg.pdf?sfvrsn=876a1bce_4

CRD Regional Water Supply Commission – October 18 2023

We received the Service Planning Report that laid out the expense costs for new community service needs as noted above in the JDF agenda and likewise recommended that the CRD Board approve it. Our service needs are tied to hiring two staff to oversee and manage the dam safety program, which covers 23 dams across the CRD, 15 of which are directly related to the RWS. We also expanding our water quality sampling service, hiring a specific contracts coordinator, and adding an additional purchaser.

CRD RWS 2024 Operating and Capital Budget

We saw some variance from the 2023 budget with higher operating expenses (labour costs and chemicals), higher agricultural water subsidy (due to drought), decreased debt servicing and higher revenues to offset the costs resulting in an increase to our transfers to our Capital fund.

The rate base for CRD RWS decreased by $3.4 million (primarily due to depreciation), revenue requirements increased by $3.8 million (primarily operational expenses tied to labour and chemical costs), and an increase on the rate of return on the rate base (long term bond rate increase). This translates into a 5.14% increase in the wholesale cost of water, which is a rate of $0.8094/m3.

The Capital budget includes $56.2 million of planned expenditures (over half of which are multi-year projects already in progress). The 5 year Capital Plan (2024-2028) covers $220.4 million in projects, as we begin to plan and design for the works identified in the 2022 CRD RWS Master Plan. If the DCC program is implemented then approximately $40 million of the 5 year plan (the component attributed to serve growth) could be funded. Most of 2024 capital projects will be funded from the Capital fund and cash reserves.

Social Sustainability Select Committee – Oct. 17 2023

I attended the SSSC as the council representative when the Alternate had an unplanned family issue arise a day ahead of the meeting. I conferred with the Liaison regarding my attendance.

The SSSC began sharing initial ideas and concepts they felt may be useful with regards to Community Hall Rentals. They shared knowledge from being involved in past rentals, providing some valuable insight, and had prepared and reviewed Metchosin's and East Sooke hall rental policy. The next meeting will be devoted to formalizing their feedback to council with potential recommendations that can be considered alongside the report that staff is preparing.

They are proceeding with reviewing the two trails plans, and will reach out to some people to share information about past plan development and future regional trail planning development. There was recognition that the dated plans needed to be looked at under the current lens of climate change, increased through-traffic, surge of new families and advanced modes of alternate transportation that didn't exist when the plans were written. Additionally they recognize the Growing Communities Fund could assist. There was a desire for some additional knowledge regarding roadside trail dedication in several of the communities.

An asset management plan was undertaken by consultants Roth IAMS. In order to keep the facility condition index at its current good level into the future, more funding is required.

District (CRHD) Boards have approved provisional financial plans for 2024, which are now open for public feedback. These plans, totaling $724 million, encompass both operating and capital expenses to support regional services, infrastructure development, and addressing community needs. They address challenges such as inflation and service adjustments, and adjustments will continue to be made in the coming months based on various factors and feedback. Notable projects include trail upgrades, a renewable natural gas initiative, a new long-term care home, and investments in affordable housing. The public is encouraged to participate in the financial planning process:
