Saturday, October 10, 2026

Doors open at 6:30, Music Starts at 7:00 pm.

Highlands Music Coffee House

We are presenting a medley of great musicians to start the evening with the Chorus Frogs as feature!

(Venue: Caleb Pike House, 1589 Millstream Rd., Highlands)

Opening act:

Sue Black - singer, guitarist, songwriter
Formerly part of the duo Beautiful Luck, and back on Vancouver Island, Sue is now performing solo and with music friends in and around Victoria. She especially enjoys playing to live audiences from a variety of genres - a mix of Americana, folk, country, pop and rock.

Plus expected more guests

The Chorus Frogs Ash Sciacallo and Caro Stengl.

Caro is a multi-instrumentalist, playing mandolin, guitar, ukuleles, woodwind flutes and reed instruments. She is a songwriter and has generated collection of originals; she also enjoys playing heartfelt covers from folk, pop and world music genres. She is also a visual artist, & has been teaching art to Indigenous students at the WSANEC College since 2004.

Ash Sciacallo a singer/songwriter based out of Langford, BC. Her new love of guitar and bass guitar together with her instrumental skills has renewed her zest for playing, performing and writing music. She has an extensive repertoire of over 80 original songs. She is also a visual artist and enjoys painting in oils and water colour, as well as digital art.

Caro and Ash have common love of singing & song writing and their collaboration has grown into folk and indie pop-inspired music.
